Community-Based Research Grants: Team Presentations

Part of the URSCO Thomas Undergraduate Research and Creativity Expo

April 7 from 9:20 – 10:45 am in EUC Azalea

9:20 Welcome by Dr. Barbara Holland

9:30 Dr. Rosemary Nelson-Gray, Jenna Mendelson, Alyssa Mielock, Annie Benson-Greer
Psychology
The Child Interaction Study at UNCG: Early Findings

9:45 Dr. Jennifer Toller Erausquin, Kelley Massengale, Stephanie Paxton
Public Health Education
Formative Evaluation of the Diaper Bank of NC: Comparing what African American and Hispanic families have done when they ran out of diapers.

10:00 Dr. Suhda Shreeniwas, Sharon Morrison, Janet Sayers, Branda Mlo, Jalisa Horne
Public Health Education
The Development of a Survey Instrument to Investigate Factors in Hypertension in Montagnard Young Adults

10:15 Dr. Justin Lee, Zoe Lauenstein
Social Work
Discovering the Voices of Refugee Women: the impact of employment

10:30 Dr. Mark Schulz, Laura Rolke, Gillian Adler
Public Health Education
Developing Methods to Evaluate and Reach the Impact of Changing Gears- A Community Program to Provide Bicycles and Safe Bicycling Skills Training to Homeless and Near Homeless Individuals

10:45 Dr. Spoma Jovanovic, Elizabeth Dam-Reiger, Nicholson Sprinkle, Rodney Johnson
Communication Studies
Amplifying the Voices of the Youth: Launching Participatory Budgeting in Greensboro

Sponsored by the Office of Leadership and Service-Learning, the Undergraduate Research, Scholarship and Creativity Office and the Graduate School.

For more information on CBR Grants, visit:
http://olsl.uncg.edu/community-scholarship/cbr-grants/